DAILY GAZETTE.

The Abandoned Mississippi Plantations.

A general interest is now being felt throughout the north-west in the opportunities for enterprise offered by the aban-donated plantations in the Lower Mississippi valley. We are disposed to offer all the encouragement we conscientiously can to those who are willing to incur the risks to life and property involved in the settlement of the vast area of productive fields abandoned by rebel owners. It is most manifestly for the interest of the government, and of the opening commerce of the Mississippi, as well as most advantageous to the thousands of helpless contrabands, that a large settlement of sturdy, enterprising, and fearless northern men should be made along the banks of the Lower Mississippi.

It is proper, however, that those who are disposed to make a venture of this kind,

should realize in advance some of the disadvantages and dangers attending it.

We have just had a conversation with a gentleman who has recently visited the Lower Mississippi, for the purpose of investigating this whole matter. As he has had the best opportunities for information, and is a gentleman of more than ordinary judgment and powers of observation, we place the fullest confidence in what he says.

He states that the return for an investment in the abandoned plantations must be very large, in case of success in avoiding guerrilla attacks, but that there are some drawbacks to be considered.

First—Many of the plantations are nominal, but are actually held in the interest of rebel owners, absent in Texas or elsewhere. While the bulk of the negroes, and of the other movable property has been transferred, some relation or overseer claiming to be for the Union, will remain to save the whole plantation.

Secondly—Lessees have to look out for themselves in all the preliminary steps of acquiring a lease. They thus sometimes meet with unexpected difficulties. Our informant knew of one case where a would-be lessee, finding a plantation that suited him, was told by the commissioners that he must pick the cotton there on the plantation, as the government wanted it "half."

He was not prepared for this and was obliged to come home without a plantation. In a few weeks, however, the old cotton crop will be irretrievably ruined, and this condition will not be insisted on.

Thirdly—The danger from guerrilla UNDESERVED CREDIT.—Frank Blair got more credit than he deserved when he was reported as giving in his adhesion to the radicals of Missouri, and denouncing the Gamble-Schofield dynasty of that state. It was the Hon. Henry T. Blow, of St. Louis, who made that speech.

Among the documents sent into Congress by the Secretary of War is General McClellan's account of the Peninsula campaign. It will make three large volumes, larger than the report of the Conduct of the War committee. The latter makes three quarters of a volume, of over 700 pages each. The House yesterday called on the Secretary of War for General McClellan's report, and it will now be forthcoming.

This report is longer than the period for which "Little Mac" held the army of the Potomac in a state of "masterly inactivity."

Mr. Beecher, in a recent speech in Philadelphia, stated that no name he could mention in England called forth such cheering cheers as that of Abraham Lincoln. He is profoundly popular there—as he is at home. Mr. Chase is looked upon as the greatest man in the country, and in spite of the malicious criticisms of the London Times, he is the admiration of financial men throughout Europe.

KENTUCKY SENATOR.—A United States Senator is to be chosen in Kentucky this winter. Dr. Brockenridge and Joseph Holt are prominently mentioned as candidates, with the chances in favor of the latter. The union men are in the majority, and will choose whom they please. Powell and Davis are senators from this state, both with strong southern proclivities. The senator to be chosen we believe, succeeds Powell. The election is set down for the 21st inst.

WISCONSIN CONSPIRACY GOING SOUTH.—The Chicago Journal of Wednesday evening says: "On Tuesday evening 120 volunteers, and 400 conscripts and substitutes, arrived on the Northwestern railroad, and were escorted from that depot to the Cincinnati Air Line depot by a company of the Michigan sharpshooters. As the train was entering the city, two of the conscripts attempted to escape by jumping from the train; one of them succeeded in getting out of sight—the other was shot by one of the guards and wounded. He was taken to Wisconsin yesterday morning."

DISTRESS OF THE PLAINS.—The following item, taken from yesterday afternoon report in the Wisconsin, explains a defective portion of our report.

FORT LEAVENWORTH, Dec. 18. Accounts from the plains represent great suffering among men and stock, in consequence of the snow storm. No hay or grain is to be had, and stock is dying off by hundreds by starvation. Many lives are known to be lost by the intense cold. Over a hundred trains are out, and much anxiety is felt for their safety. The snow is much drifted. No mail here for three days.

FIRE AT FOND DU LAC.—Last Wednesday morning a fire broke out in the rear of Tompkins's grocery store, on Main street, which was soon completely enveloped in flames. From there it spread to the store adjoining on the north, occupied by J. S. Bischoff as a boot and shoe store, and then to the shoe store of T. C. Hollowell, and to Leffert's hardware store. Two-thirds of the block on Main street is entirely gone, leaving two brick buildings standing at either end. The buildings burned were not very expensive. Several stocks of goods were destroyed. The loss in buildings and goods is estimated at from $12,000 to $15,000, on which there was but little insurance.

IS LUCK.—The Madison Patriot says that an alderman of that city who had the good fortune to draw a "prize" in the late draft, started for Janesville with a "substitute" who made a drive at the alderman's pocket, evidently expecting to make a haul and then jump from the cars. The alderman concluded that such a "substitute" would rob Uncle Sam, as he had attempted to rob him; and so dismissed him—went to Janesville alone and paid in his regular $300. The fellow was undoubtedly a professional "substitute," and a scoundrel.

BEETLER EXPLOSION.—One of the boilers of the Chicago distilling company exploded Thursday demolishing the engine house. Seven men who were employed in the building, were scalded so badly that it is feared they will not recover. Five or six others were injured but not seriously.

NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD.—The earnings of this road for the year ending September 30, 1863, were $10,466,518.97, and its expenses $6,842,632.91, or 65.79 per cent. of its income. The road receives and disburses a very respectable amount of money.

A sister of Jeff Davis, and a grandson of ex-President Tyler, were well lately at Richmond. The officiating clergyman carried off his fee in a bagging.

Official Station Passenger Report.

Last Night's Report.

(Additional by Steamer.)

It is reported, on undoubted authority, that a ram was lately launched at Hull, with steam up, and immediately put to sea with sundry southern-looking gents. It is also reported that there is danger of a collision between France and America, owing to California and Texas supplying the Mexicans with arms. The three war steamers recently sold by the British admiralty, in addition to the Victor, the Repulse, and the Phoenix, Cyclops and the Phoenix. The latter has 26 guns, and is a powerful frigate. It is feared they are intended for the rebel service.

Austria and Prussia have offered to abide by the treaty of 1852 as regards their own of Denmark. Great Britain will advise Denmark to make concessions, and thereby remove all danger of hostilities.

Cotton closed with a decline of 1c 2d. The Republican extra has the following: Lieut. Peck, of the 2d regiment of District of Columbia volunteers, has given us the particulars of a bold raid made by Stuart's cavalry last night on the Orange and Alexandria railroad, about a mile and a half beyond Fairfax station. The rebels about 800 strong, accompanied by the notorious Mosby, about 1000 strong, attacked the guard on the railroad at that point, which consisted of Co. I, of the 155th New York regiment. They made a strong resistance and were only captured by the cavalry forming a hollow square around them. The rebels had previously cut the telegraph wires, but word was conveyed as quickly as possible to Col. Drew.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 18. Special to Chicago Tribune.—Gen. John H. Morgan escaped across the Tennessee at Galesburg Landing, 60 miles above here, on Sunday afternoon. Capt. Cummings and Robert Cummings, who escaped from Columbus with him, were captured, together with 14 of his escort of 30.

On reaching the neighborhood of their press being given, and hurriedly constructed a raft at the mouth of Miller's Creek, on which an attempt to cross was made. A citizen, who eluded their pickets gave the alarm, and an attempt was made to cross, but was frustrated.

Morgan escaped on a valuable race horse, presented him in Kentucky, going in the direction of Athens.

Gen. Howard, who commands at Athens, has cavalry scouting to the country, and possibly Morgan may yet be taken.

Wheeler has rejoined Hardee and is reorganizing a cavalry force near Dalton.

Refugees and deserters say the rebel cavalry will be actively employed during the winter.

Hardee's headquarters are at Dalton. His pickets extend as far as Tunnel Hill. His army, including the Georgia militia, is 35,000 strong, and represented to be utterly demoralized.

Gen. U. S. Grant and Sherman left for Bridgeport to-day.

Steamboats make trips from Bridgeport to Stearns, whence stores are transported by rail, twenty-two miles, to Knoxville.

Gen. Dudley Granger, with Burdick, is probably fighting Longstreet at Bay near Knoxville.

The following is from the correspondent of the Baltimore American:

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 13. Gen. Gilmore again shelled Charleston on Thursday night, throwing a number of shells into different parts of the city, and it is believed, doing much damage.

All the rebel batteries opened, and a heavy bombardment ensued for several hours.

The storm is washing away the rebel obstructions, and yesterday a large number of heavy timbers, bolted together with iron, came down with the tide. They were scoured and towed to shore by outposts. The amount of timber that came down is so large that it is believed the obstructions must be seriously damaged.

There is no other news of importance.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17. The New York Tribune has accounts from Texas, from a prominent gentleman from that State, containing among other information, the following: It rumored that the early part of October, on Colorado River in Fayette and Basque counties, thirty-four persons had been hanged—four Americans and thirty Germans.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 9th has the capture of Puebla by Juarez's forces, and that Comonfort was advancing against the French.

The French in Tampico are in a state of siege, and have lost eight hundred men by yellow fever.

By the Arago it is stated that the recent heavy gale swept away nearly all the rebel obstructions in Charleston harbor, and that the remnant line the shore.

The entrance to the harbor is now believed to be clear, and it is supposed our navy will take due advantage of the fact.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18. Times' special.—Major General Hitchcock has returned from Fortress Monroe has given his official sanction to the plan of General Butler, by which it is hoped our suffering soldiers will be released from southern prisons. General Butler is to send to City Point, on the eight men, confined as rebels, to exchange them for men for man. This experiment proves successful exchanges on this basis will be resumed.

The statement that any instructions have been given tending to ignore the rights as prisoners of colored soldiers, who the rebels have taken prisoners, whether originally bond or free, is incorrect. On the contrary the most stringent orders have recently been issued under which the rebel authorities are to be held to a strict accountability with regard to colored prisoners.

The Chesapeake having been captured in British waters will be given up to the colonial authorities. Secretaries Welles and Seward have so telegraphed to Halifax. It is not believed, however, that the pirates will be allowed to go to sea again. Gen. Maston is reported to have said he could, on very short notice, furnish 1000 sailors from the prisons at the camp at Point Lookout, of which he is in charge.

received a dispatch from Gen. Sullivan announcing the capture of Col. Carter, last Virginia, and a number of other prisoners, by a force of the 22d Pennsylvania sent out on a reconnaissance, in Loudoun county, and towards Upperville. Near the latter place they captured this party. The news of Union movements continues highly favorable.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18. Times' special.—The tax commissioners of Virginia have prepared their list, and announce their sale to take place January 11th. The first parcel offered will be Arlington, the homestead of Gen. Lee, comprising 1,100 acres. Most of the remainder is located at Alexandria.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

The Herald's Morris Island correspondent says:—The cause of the washing out of the obstructions in Charleston harbor was from the famous floating battery getting adrift in the last gale and smashing through the obstructions. She now lies ashore near the north end of Foley Island.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19. The secretary of the navy has received a dispatch from Commander Clary, dated Halifax, 18th, saying the Chesapeake had been transferred to the British authorities.

New York, Dec. 18. Flour 35 better. Wheat steady and western. Corn dull. No. 1, 91c. Pork active and firm, at 125 old, 185, 190, new. Gold 51c.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 19. Messengers from General Sullivan's cavalry, beyond Winchester, report that a very large force of cavalry were in Staunton yesterday, and tore up the railroad for six miles between there and Gordonsville. This is very important news, but lacks confirmation.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 19. Flour more firm. Wheat fine and heavy. No. 1 spring in store, 1.19; do. 1.18; No. 2 in store, 1.14; No. 3 do. 1.08; No. 4 do. 1.05. Dressed hogs, market advancing. Oats steady. Corn, 80c to 85c.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPH.

A boquet was sent to the New York penitentiary last week from Brooklyn. Perhaps we ought to state that it was Henry Boquet.

The small pox has broken out in Memphis and is spreading rapidly.

A college is about to be established at Westchester, Pa., under the auspices of the Friends' educational society.

John G. Saxe is advertised to lecture in New York next Friday evening for the benefit of the Union prisoners in Richmond.

Charles H. Brooks, was recently hung in New Jersey for the crime of murdering his father. The criminal accused his mother of instigating him to the commission of the crime.

It is stated that Gov. Morton, of Indiana, has received information that the 9th regiment of that state had to be re-enlisted.

Wild hogs are said to be very numerous in the vicinity of Chamfield, Minnesota. Rare sport is had in hunting them, but the hogs are very ferocious, and in some instances have killed the dogs set upon them.

A pair of shears weighing 24 tons have been built at Birmingham, England, for the Russian government, to be used in large iron works in the neighborhood of St. Petersburg. They have a power of pressure equal to 1,000 tons, and can cut in pieces a bar of cold iron half a foot square. The blades are of cast steel, and they are operated by hydraulic pressure.

Trappers sell mink tracks in Minnesota. A fair track sells for a dollar. The purchaser of one caught a weasel instead of a mink the other day.

The mills at Montmorency, Mich., have manufactured $5,395,000 of lumber the past season.

The Messrs. Bullock, of Philadelphia, in their bid for a contract for Kersey's at 73c, offered to engage for supplying 1,000,000 yards additional at the same price. The government has accepted the offer. The loss to the contractors cannot be much short of $150,000.

The Chicago Journal complains that the eastern bound trains from that city are tolerably well filled with persons who are running away from the draft in Illinois. It asks that an embargo may in some manner be placed on this sickening tendency.

VENTILATING CELLARS.—An unventilated cellar is a residence for the seeds of pestilence and death. Diphtheria and typhoid fever are not unfrequently the result of miasmas accumulated in close underground apartments where vegetable and animal matters are allowed to decay and decompose. Organic matters of any kind should never be kept in any room or place unless fresh and ample circulation of air is secured. The Working Farmer gives the following plan for ventilating cellars, which we commend to the consideration of our readers:

"A stove on the first floor may have a branch from a smoke pipe passing down through the floor as to receive the top air of the cellar. This pipe should be slightly enlarged at its lower end, and it should be supplied with a valve; when the fire is being lighted this valve may be shut and afterward opened, so as to leave sufficient draft for the stove. Thousands of cubic feet of damp air and foul gases will pass through the chimney from the cellar daily, and thus render it both clean and dry at all times. Every philosophical mind will see the truth of this statement, and at the same time must admit that where such an arrangement does not exist that, to a degree, at least, these foul gases must leak through the cracks in the floor, to the detriment of the health of the inmates, before it passes through the fire in the chimney. Every chimney should be connected in some way with the cellar, so as to be used as a ventilator when required."

An opening in a chimney running into the cellar would answer the same purpose.

AN OLD LADY'S ADVICE TO YOUNG.—"Now, John, listen to me—I'm older than you, or I could be your mother. Never do you marry a young woman, John, before you have contrived to happen around four or five times before breakfast. You should know how she lies in bed in the morning. You should take notice whether her complexion is the same in the morning as in the evening, or whether the wash and towel have robbed her of her evening bloom. You should take care to surprise her, so that you may see her in her morning dress, and observe how her hair looks when she is not expecting you. If possible, you should be where you could hear the morning conversation between her and her maid. If she is ill-natured and snappish to her mother, so she will be to you, and on it. But if you find her up and dressed on the morning, with the same smile, and the neatly combed hair, the same ready and pleasant manner, her deportment in the evening, and particularly if she is leading a bachelor, to get the breakfast ready in good season, she is a prize, John, and the sooner you secure her to yourself, the better."

LEASING ABANDONED PLANTATIONS.—Rev. L. S. Livermore, one of the United States commissioners for leasing abandoned plantations on the lower Mississippi river, will be found at the Lloyd House, (formerly the Waring House), in Chicago, to confer with parties wishing to invest in the enterprise. He will be found there from Tuesday to Friday P. M. of each week. From Friday P. M. till the following Tuesday he will be ready to visit the surrounding cities and lecture on the subject, by invitation from parties in each town. Free house and free lecture. Address L. S. Livermore, U. S. C. Chicago.
